Diversity– Bullying in the Workplace

Presented by: Dan Clark and Betsy Webb, MSU
Local Government Center

This workshop will begin with a definition of workplace bullying. We will highlight forms of bullying behavior and ask for examples that HR professionals are seeing in the workplace.

By the close of the session, participants will know the difference between workplace bullying, illegal discrimination and harassment based on protected group status. We will discuss reasons why it is important to confront and stop workplace bullying and cite effective ways to stop bullying behavior. We will ask if any of the Gallatin Valley businesses have a policy on bullying and show SHRM's model policy as an example. We will include small group discussion and large group interaction.
